Sage Day Princeton Hosting a Spaghetti and Success Stories Event

New Jersey – Princeton – January 19, 2016 – Sage Day Princeton is holding a special community event, “Spaghetti and Success Stories,” featuring a panel of Sage parents, alumni and staff who will share their stories and experiences at Sage. All attendees will receive a complimentary spaghetti dinner. You can reserve your seat here. Seating is limited.

One of the speakers, Christa Hughes, who had two children graduate from Sage said, “I am ever grateful to Sage for being a resource for my children as well as others in the community we live.”

She said this program gave both her children the most valuable education, the one of knowing oneself in a challenging and loving setting.

Her daughter, Julia is a teacher in Thailand after graduating Summa Cum Laude from Ramapo with a BSW and her son, Frank who will be speaking, is currently working as a DJ and actor and has his degree from Ramapo in Theater Arts as well.

Prior to the event, Mayor Kelly Yaede will be honoring Sage Day Princeton with a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony to mark the opening of Sage Day’s fourth campus, the first in Mercer County. Sage Day Princeton is currently accepting students in grades 6-12.

All questions regarding Sage Day Princeton and the admissions process can be directed to Clinical Director, Jennifer Smith, jsmith1@sageday.com
