Sage Day provides a small and safe environment for students experiencing anxiety, depression, school refusal, adhd and other emotional issues. It has been providing individual, group and family therapy integrated within the school day for more than 18 years.

Sage Day has two Bergen County locations: a high school, Sage Day Rochelle Park (grades 9-12) and a lower and middle school Sage Day Mahwah (grades 4-8). Sage Day also has a middle school/high school in Boonton (grades 8-12) and recently added a fourth location, Sage Day Princeton (6-12) which just opened its doors this year.

Reilly said, “ I appreciate getting the chance to shed some light on our program and share our mission with the community.”
